Dear Mr Strong

Thank you for all your efforts in trying to return my call. I am very pleased that you were finally successful.

The enclosed check is for your book and a little towards your phone call.

All these years since that war I believed more information was unavailable to me. Thanks to a long delayed trip to Raalte, Holland, I met people who really care and appreciate what the American service people did for them at the cost of their lives, in many cases. An English couple I met in Naaragattun told me about you and your book. If I hadn't met them I still wouldn't know that someone had gone to all the effort it must have taken to search out the facts so all interested people could finally see.

Thanks

Joseph Curran
