Dear Ragnar:

I am very curious about the events of 22 Mar 44 and what happened to your plane, and crew.

There is a brief description in the 423rd diary, but I would hope that you might be able to give me more information that I can use in my forthcoming book on the 306th.

Sincerely yours,

Russell A. Strong

The Caring Choice

11/19/01

Dear Mr. Strong,

Please read this letter, which was recently returned to me.

In it you will find the data concerning my payment of $55 and the canceled check still has not been returned and I have never received the "Book."

I am the widow of Lt Col Ragnar L. Carlson, 423 Squadron, 306th.

Today, I received the 306th Echo and the article does not give an address in it.

Thank you, Lila S. Carlson

My son, Michael L. Carlson, stationed at WPAFB, Ohio, is Director of Logistics for the C-17 Aircraft and is on the promotion list for Full Colonel.
