Dear Mr Strong

Came accross the notice of the 306th re-union this September in Knoxville and while I'm not sure that I am going to be able to make it I'd like some information about it, if possible.

I was with the 306th the latter part of the war (367th Sqdn) and it has been many years since I've seen anything pertaining to the 306th. I saw this notice in the March/April issue of something called The Senior Class, a publication of the Senior Coalation.

I've included a stamped, self addressed envelope for any info you can send me.

Thanks

Sir:

Enclosed is my check for $17.00 for one copy of the 367th Combat Diary.

While I am not going to be able to attend the reunion in Knoxville this year I appreciate all the info. you sent me after my initial inquiry. I enjoy reading the 306th Echoes though I must admit I've not found many names I recognize.

About a month ago I sent a check to POB 13362, Des Moines requesting a photograph of a B-17G if available even though such an item was not listed on the 306th Mail Order Memorabilia. Having not received anything I am wondering if your office has anything of that sort.

If so, I would appreciate your letting me know.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Grunski

I recently found out about (and also joined) the 306th BG Asso and in reading the copies of the 306th Echoes I noticed the mail order memorabilia form.

I have always wanted a picture of a B-17G
but never did find one which I thought suitable

I'm wondering if there are any available thru the memorabilia items or perhaps a copy of the picture on the back of the 306th BG Asso.
1994 directory.

At any rate I'm enclosing a check for $10.00
to cover cost and postage of any such picture and if nothing is available keep the money for whatever needs have to be met.

Thanks
