Dear Sir

I am the widow of Raymond E. Hartline who died October 31, 1988. He was stationed near Bedford, England for three years from 1942 to 1945. I'm interested in acquiring any tapes you may have of the anniversary of the end of World War Two in England. I believe there were three days of celebrations.

I would also love to have any tapes of the reunion trip to England. We almost got there but Ray got sick and was hospitalized.

If you would let me know if there's any tapes available and their cost. I'd appreciate it. I've been reliving the entire war recently through Ray's letters all of which I saved and discovered after his death
