

Final Dec 12 - Dec 15 - 8:00 Burial
JAMES T. JETER SR.

Funeral services for James Thomas Jeter Sr. were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday in Mt. Gilead Baptist Church with Dr. Norman Mitchell officiating. Burial was in Cumberbund Memorial Gardens.

Jeter, 64, of Fayetteville, N.C., died Saturday in Womack Army Hospital.

He was a native of Natchitoches and a veteran of World War II and the Korean War.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary M. Jeter of Fayetteville; three daughters, Mrs. Susan J. Baker of Belmont, Mrs. Debra J. Turner of Charleston, S.C., and Mrs. Mona J. Bloom of Waldorf, Md.; two sons, James T. Jeter Jr. of Waldorf, Md., and Bruce W. Jeter of Fayetteville; five brothers, Alvin Monroe Jeter and Thaxton Jeter, both of Natchitoches, Paul E. Jeter of Winnemucca, Nev., Richard Jeter of Campbellsville, Ky., and Raymond Jeter of Wichita Falls, Texas; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.