

Dear Russ:

Do hope this finds you well and in the best

Received your question re our ~~own~~ ^{air} plane called Skipper. Now as what I can remember, Visconti was the crew chief. I had lost my aircraft on a Bomb run and in those days, Ground Crews were very short handed, I was waiting for a new airplane, so my crew and I were assigned to give Visconti a hand to put his aircraft in order because ~~the~~ Skipper was all shot up, it even had two engines gone and the tail was half missing, that is how my name got in with discontinued for naming me crew chief with him it is all a mistake. because that was his airplane, he was crew chief, though I would keep the records straight on this.

So far I have missed the sessions, just can't seem to get time to attend any, say hello to all, and regards from me.

Sincerely
Russell J. Lawrence
