SUGGESTION BOX (Continued):

SUGGESTION: "Why can majors buy certain items at the IX when 2d Lts are unable to purchase same items."

ANSWER: Some items are received in very short quantity by the IX, but they are put on sale without regard to rank. There are two cases which might seem exceptions to this but they are not the type of partiality you refer to. First, there is the sign-up list for watches, fountain pens, and lighters which is open to all. Second, there are a few items such as part of the available Kleenex, the very few lipsticks received and Listerine, held aside for Red Cross girls. The IX on this station prides itself on the fact that everyone does receive the same opportunity to purchase the "hard to get" items. SB says you should be specific in an accusation such as this because it definitely will be corrected - what was the item?
