fixed up. A fair system would let each Unit Commander decide whether the area is deserving of taking it with him.

REMARKS: B-24 jackets are organizational equipment and not individual equipment. It is the desire of the Station Commander that they be left on the Station for the use of the people who have to stay here and are not getting to go home. Also since they are not authorized for individual issue they will be taken up at the Reimbursement Point except in cases where the unit as a whole is moving from the Theater.
