PAUL J. BAILLIE
Major, Air Corps
Adjutant

DEFINITION:

1. NOTES IN THE POST OFFICE:

Today, Tues 14 Aug - "RED CROSS IN BROOKLYN", James Dunn, Lloyd Nolan
Tomorrow, Wed 15 Aug - "MOM IN ELECTRON STREET", Nils Asther, Helen Walker.

RECOMMENDATION:

SUGGESTION: "I suggest that the Commanding Officer of the field have a certain time set aside so that Eli can talk to him. It is understood these talks would only be of a nature that no one else could answer the questions."

MEMO: The Commanding Officer set aside 1100 hours on Monday of each week as a personal conference hour when he first assumed command of the station. Any person, officer or enlisted man, can see him at that time without "going through channels". In addition the C.O. has advised S.B. that he will see anyone who has any problems at any time.

MEMORANDUM:

The fol TTX LAD 4-459-C is quoted for your info. Quote: No info has as yet been received concerning plans or procedure for celebration of the end of the war with Japan. Any official info on the subject received at this Hq will be immediately transmitted to all subordinate units. Station and holding party commanders will be held strictly responsible for the discipline and conduct of all personnel both on and off their stations during celebrations resulting from the final surrender of Japan. Unquote.
