Quote: Your well-planned and efficiently executed observance of Air Force Day is deserving of high praise. It has been estimated that the stations of this command which participated in the Open-House program handled a total of more than 50,000 visitors. Material submitted by the stations for the scrapbook was of excellent quality and indicated the various programs were carefully arranged and skillfully carried out. I wish to commend you upon this outstanding job by members of your command. Signed: TURNER COMAIRDIV ONE Unquote.

SUGGESTION BOX:

SUGGESTION: "Suggest that a memo be published and brought to the attention of all personnel on this station as to the correct procedure to be followed when outside and the National Anthem is played.

When the orchestra of the GI "Caravan Show" played our National Anthem while entertaining our personnel on 3 August, there were three different reactions displayed by those GI's present. Namely, some standing at attention, others saluting, and at least 5% of the Officers and 20 present removed their headgear. (Civilian Army)..... The Basic Field Manual states a hand salute will be rendered."

ANSWER: This suggestion was answered in the Daily Bulletin of 4 August 1945 by printing an extract from Par. 21-50. Your suggestion was probably put in the box before the extract was published.
