SUGGESTION BOX:

SUGGESTION: "For reply to suggestion 1 (one) Daily Bulletin 198, dd 18 July 1945. We appreciate your sympathy with us of the Service Group who are sons Battle Stars etc. We also appreciate your efforts of contacting Division Hq to see what can be done to put us on an equal with the Barb Group when it comes to selecting men to be sent to that almost forgotten land the "Lanes"; but we ask, why stop at Division?"

NOTE: The correspondence in question did not stop at Division and no reply to that particular letter has been received. However, a reply to the entire Battle Star problem was made by the Secretary of JAR and was published in YANK for 29 June 1945.

EXTRACT FROM BASIC FIELD MANUAL - FM 21-50:

9. HONORS TO THE "NATIONAL ANTHEM" or "TO THE COLOR (STANDARD)"

a. OUTDOORS.- Whenever and wherever the "National Anthem" or "To the Color (Standard)" is played (not in formation) -

(1) At the first note thereof, all dismounted personnel present will face the music, stand at attention, and render the prescribed salute, except that at the "Escort of the Color" or at "Retreat" they will face toward the color or flag. The position of salute will be retained until the last note of the music is sounded.

(2) Those mounted on animals will halt and render the salute mounted. Individuals leading animals or standing to horse will stand at attention but will not salute.

(3) Vehicles in motion will be brought to a halt. Persons riding in a passenger car or motorcycle will dismount and salute as directed in (1) above. Occupants of other types of military vehicles remain seated at attention in the vehicle, the individual in charge of each vehicle dismounting and rendering the hand salute. Tank or armored car commanders salute from the vehicle.

(4) The above marks of respect are shown the national anthem of any friendly country when played upon official occasions.

b. INDOORS.- When indoors, officers and enlisted men will stand at attention and face the music or the flag if one is present. They will not salute.
