OFFICIAL:

Harold G. Taylor
HAROLD G. TAYLOR,
1st Lt, Air Corps,
Assistant Adjutant.

INFORMATION:

1. SAFETY THOUGHT: "It's not what is handled but the way it's handled that causes so many accidents."

SUGGESTION BOX:

Suggestion:

"To Colonel Upham:

Dear Sir: This is a question that has risen many a time. No one has done much about it. Few officers have raised the question but to no avail.

What we want to know is why we cannot wear the bronze service stars just as the Bomb Group can. We do the same work that the glamour boys do, and still we are not entitled to them. All members of an allied unit on the station wish they can get a satisfactory answer. No one has been able to give an answer that is satisfactory to ease our feelings. After all we helped to service the planes that bombed the hell out of Germany. Signed. All members of an allied unit, MF Station 111".

Answer: "SB has requested reply to this from the Commanding Officer. Here it is: "I am fully aware of this problem and as a result of this suggestion have already both telephoned to higher headquarters and written an official letter to the Commanding General, USSTAF, requesting a solution."
