Preface

When Echoes began back in 1975 there was no thought given to it lasting for any great length of time—but it has! Now, in its 26th year, we are publishing this volume of those first 25 years with two purposes in mind: to preserve all of the copies in a bound volume, and to provide an index to some of those things you may want to read again.

We know that some of you have saved all or most of your copies, and if you have looked at the some of those earlier issues you have noticed how the paper has deteriorated. This book overcomes that. But, additionally, we are providing a 26-page index which will help you move around through the pages to those special items you may treasure.

In working on these pages in the final preparation of this book we are constantly amazed at how much information there is. Much of this has to be attributed to you readers who have dug through your memories and have sorted through those collections of memorabilia to provide the editor with the raw material for the next issue of Echoes.

I've read many of the obits again, and my work slows to recall names that I knew during combat, names with which I have become familiar during reunions over this same period, and the hundreds of men I have become acquainted with through telephone conversations, correspondence, and now with e-mail. In some cases I have traveled great distances to see a particular individual who has kept mind-boggling experiences tucked away. Today children and grandchildren are also getting into the act as they also dig through their own heritages.

There has been a bit of variety for the readership. There have been two or three four-pagers, some 12 pages and the Dec 84 issue had 16 pages. After this someone suggested I continue that size and also do it monthly.

There are a couple of shortcomings I must confess because they may prove to be a source of frustration for you. So, here goes:

The proper indexing of pages was a bit spasmodic for about the first ten years, in large measure because I was doing all of the work of pasting up pages for the printer after the type was set. I didn't always get page numbers on, although I did get the volume number and issue number on the front page. So I developed a scheme to index those pages which needed it. You will see in a bottom corner a series of numbers which are volume # - issue # - page #.

The index includes a series of numbers for all items, covering all issues: volume - issue, month-year.

This became necessary I felt because of the problems over lack of page numbers, and was also influenced by the fact that I had done the indexing over two widely separated periods. These two projects then had to be brought together in some meaningful way. The early indexing was also influenced by the lack of storage space on earlier computers, forcing me to compile the indexes in sections.

The other problem for many of you will be that I only indexed pilots' names for crew pictures, which have appeared for many years. There are some pilots who appeared in pictures with different crews, and on a few occasions I repeated the same crew pictures on later dates.

My suspicion is that once a person has completed indexing a book, and looks back at it, there is a fleeting moment when you really want to start all over and do it again, doing it "right" the second time. You then quickly regain your sanity and don't begin.

For the editor it has been a long and joyous adventure in bringing 306th Echoes to you. We don't know how long we will be privileged to continue it. Only God knows.

I also want to thank each of you who has been a faithful reader, each of you who has been able to contribute pictures, stories and ideas; and I would mention two non-306'ers who helped immensely, my younger brother who as an electrical engineer had access to a rare bit of technical data which the 8th AF used and which I have never seen mentioned elsewhere, and to my third son who found a piece on the Internet that became a delightful page 1 story for us.

Surely, all of you will agree that the 306th Bombardment Group had within its ever-changing roster sensational and patriotic men who gave of themselves unstintingly.

PILOTS

The following listings of 306th pilots, by squadrons, is an attempt to clarify information and to obtain new data on individuals listed. This list may not be complete, or necessarily correct. Pilots who served with the 306th, but were transferred out before the unit left the States have been omitted. The list was closed off at the end of April 1945.

This listing shows them alphabetically, followed by whether the individual was a pilot or co-pilot, or moved from co-pilot to pilot, if this is known. Then is shown the best available date on which the person joined the 306th, usually the date of the Special Orders assigning them to a squadron. The squadron is usually that of their first assignment.

There follows a column showing the date they left the 306th, whether shot down or killed, or transferred, or completed a tour. The date may be either the date of their final mission or the date of orders transferring them to a replacement depot.

If there are two zeroes in a date that means the historian did not know the date. Especially dates of departure may have a bit of guesswork in them.

The final column shows how they left the 306th, if known.

Please review your own data carefully, note that of other crew members. If you can provide better information, please inform the historian. If you can provide Special Orders which you received for any reason while stationed at Thurleigh, please send along copies.

Data Needed On Duties of Combat Men

In the study of rated officers assigned to the 306th, we are still lacking information as to the specialties of some persons: pilot, navigator or bombardier. Below is a list of these persons, along with any known data that places them in time or squadrons. Please send any information you can on these men:

- William Benton, 368th, departed Jun 44.
- Richard L. Carlson, 423, departed Jun 44.
- Wilfred Forster, 368, present in 45.
- William D. Garden, 368, present in 44-45.
- Thomas Hensley, 423, present in Feb 44.
- Ray W. Hygher, 367, present in Jan 44.
- K. M. Jarvis, 368, present in Mar 44.
- Bennie Jones, 368, present in Feb 44.
- Byran E. Jones
- John Jones, Jr., 368, present in Feb 44.
- Lloyd E. Jones, 368, present in Jul 44.
- William S. Kalay, 368, present in Oct 43.
- Manuel A. Legna, Jr., 368, present in Feb 44.
- Rodger C. Lewis, 367, arrived 8 May 44, departed in Jul 44.
- Edward Luban, 367, present in Mar 45.
- Herman D. Martin, 368, present in Jan 45.

NAVIGATORS

Above is the license plate Joe Bowles displays in the Roanoke, VA, area. He says it is a conversation starter. Below is the plate Harold Lightbown shows to every one in Wakefield, MA. Peter Pappas prepared the plate for Lighty.

- William Rose, 423, present in Feb 45.
- John W. Seaver, 368, present in Jul 44.
- Carl P. Smith, 423, present in Oct 44.
- William H. Springsteen, 367, arr 10 Nov 44.
- Wylie W. Swapp, 368, departed Oct 44.
- William F. Wagner, 423, present in Jul 43.
- William F. Warner, 423, present in Feb 44.

Continuing our feature of listing 306th personnel, this month we highlight navigators and radar operators. The listing by squadrons is alphabetical, and includes all of those persons whom the historian has been able to identify.

One of the reasons for running this listing is to fill out data, to correct squadron assignments, and to add to it names which may have been omitted for some now unknown reason.

If you have additions, deletions or corrections, please send them to the historian, Russell A. Strong, 5323 Cheval Pl., Charlotte, NC 28205.

The first column shows the date of arrival with the group, usually obtained from Special Orders. However, in the early days and even throughout the history of the group, such dates may have been obtained from squadron diaries. The second column lists the date of departure: KIA, shot down, transferred or completion of tour. Where any of the dates show a "00" the historian has been unable to come up with anything accurate.

If you have pertinent information, particularly Special Orders from the Group, Squadron, or some other source, please send copies along to be added to the Group collection of such papers. If you were not a navigator, but have information pertaining to one or more navigators and can assist in the completion of this task, please contact the historian.

DEATHS

Dean C. Allen, 368th pilot and POW, was killed 4 May 1980 in a civilian small plane crash, it has been learned. A longtime resident of the Atlanta, GA, area, Allen joined the group 5 Jun 44 and was MIA 26 Aug 44 at Gelsenkirchen, Germany.

Harold P. Anderson, 367, died 7 Jan 84 in Chicago, IL.

Jack Cameron, 367th, died 22 July 88 in Frazeytsburg, OH.

Joseph H. R. Caron, a food and dairy inspector for the 11th veterinary section at Thurleigh, died 6 Jan 86 at Fall River, MA.

LTC Ervin R. Clark, 367th bombardier with Richard L. Breed's crew, Aug 44-Jan 45, died 14 Jun 88 in Spokane, WA.

Leon W. Currie, 368th gunner (Alvin Schuring's crew), died in February 1987, it has been learned. He was MIA 20 Mar 44 at Brunswick (w.Schuring) and a POW.

John L. Eskew, 367th assistant crew chief, died 12 May 86 in New Smyrna Beach, FL. He was with the 306th throughout the combat era.

David M. Hovis, 367th engineer, and the last surviving member of the three who lived out of James E. Winter's plane 22 Dec 43 at Osnabruck, Germany, died 24 Mar 88 in Shelby, NC.

Roy J. Law, 367th, has passed away.

1Lt Wendell C. Leggett, a 369th navigator (Ethan Allen's crew, 15 May 44-Aug 44), died in May 82 in Baxley, GA, where he was the postmaster. He retired from the USAAF because of the loss of peripheral vision in one eye in combat. Wendell was a 1938 graduate of the University of Georgia.

Dr. H. Deane Munal, a flight surgeon with the 306th from 15 Apr 42 until the end of the war, died 24 Jun 88 at San Juan, TX, where he had practiced medicine since leaving the service. He started as flight surgeon for the 368th squadron and became group surgeon 12 Nov 43, following the departure of Dr. John J. Manning. Doc Munal attended the Fort Worth reunion in 1983.

Bertram H. Perlmutter, 369th gunner (Schoolfield's crew), died 8 Jun 88 in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, of a ruptured aorta. He was the 152nd EM to complete a tour with the 306th, counting second Schweinfurt among those. He was commissioned a second lieutenant as a gunnery officer 29 Feb 44. He leaves his wife and two daughters.

Robert L. Scales, 369th armament worker, died 23 Oct 64 in Marietta, OH.

Robert A. Siavage, 367th radio operator with Earl Tunnell's original crew, died 31 Mar 88 in Eynon, PA. Tunnell's crew was MIA at Lorient, 6 Mar 43 and Siavage was a prisoner of war.

LTC Robert S. Stevens, 368th engineering officer, died 12 Jun 88 in Memphis, TN, after a long illness. He joined the 306th 21 May 42 at Wendover, UT, and continued to serve until late in the war. At one time he was also supply officer for the 449th Subdepot. Stevens joined the Army 20 Dec 20, received his commission 12 May 42, and retired 31 May 54. He leaves his wife, Frances, and three sons.

Aaron L. Swire, 423rd gunner in 1945, is now deceased.

Col. William C. Tarr, 369th pilot and POW, died 19 May 88 in San Antonio, TX, where he had lived since retiring from active duty. His last assignment was a pilot for the special unit flying VIPs out of Washington, DC. Tarr had a tumultuous combat career. He came to Thurleigh 21 Feb 44, and on the 26 Mar had a bombardier killed on his plane, then on 11 April lost his bombardier and navigator when the nose was blown off the plane. Tarr's combat tour ended 24 Apr 44 on the mission to Oberpfaffenhofen that cost the 306th ten aircraft and crews. His combat experiences appear in First Over Germany and in the Jan 80 issue of Echoes (Vol. 5, No. 1, Page 8). He received a Silver Star for the mission of 11 Apr 44.

by a newly-elected president in the hours before the banquet.

Omaha, Fort Worth, Colorado Springs, Dayton and Washington have all been outstanding gatherings, and there is no reason to believe that Las Vegas will be any less than these. If you have not been able to attend as yet, plan now for Little Rock.

Code of Conduct

As Revised 28 March 1988

I. I am an American, fighting in the forces which guard my country, and our way of life, I am prepared to give my life in their defense.

II. I will never surrender of my own free will. If in command, I will never surrender, the members of my command while they still have the means to resist.

III. If I am captured I will continue to resist by all means available. I will make every effort to escape and aid others to escape. I will accept neither parole nor special favors from the enemy.

IV. If I become a prisoner of war, I will keep faith with my fellow prisoners. I will give no information or take part in any actions which might be harmful to my comrades. If I am senior, I will take command. If not, I will obey the lawful orders of those appointed over me and will back them up in every way.

V. When questioned, should I become a prisoner of war, I am required to give name, rank, service number and date of birth. I will evade answering further questions to the utmost of my ability. I will make no oral or written statements disloyal to my country and its allies or harmful to their cause.

VI. I will never forget that I am an American, fighting for freedom, responsible for my actions, and dedicated to the principles which made my country free. I will trust in my God and in the United States of

THE DEATH OF THE BALL TURRET GUNNER

From my mother's sleep I fell into the State,
And I hunched in its belly till my wet fur froze.
Six miles from earth, loosed from its dream of life,
I woke to black flak and the nightmare fighters.
When I died they washed me out of the turret with a hose.
Randall Jarrell (1914-1965)

BOMBARDIERS

This is the last group of flying officers of the 306th to be listed in 306th Echoes. Previous lists of pilots, copilots and navigators has enabled the editor to make a considerable number of changes and corrections in listings. The Bombardier list has been compiled with great assistance from Ralph Bordner, himself a 368th bomb dropper. This has resulted in more names being added to the list. Despite these efforts, there are still blanks to be found, and there are still dates to be verified and to be brought closer to reality than simply a year and a month listing. If you can be of assistance, please notify the editor. For instance, the date of arrival of a bombardier may not be shown. But, if you were on his crew perhaps you can help us get a bit closer. This occasional feature of Echoes will be continued as lists can be compiled (we've done the easy ones). Presently the historian is engaged in completing data on a great number of men. If you receive a card requesting data, please respond as quickly and as accurately as you can.

One of the problems that recurred in the B-17 in the stress of combat was the breakdown in communication between the five men stationed ahead of the bomb bay and the five men whose duties placed them behind the bomb bay. This might be either because the intercom was inoperative, or the plane was damaged enough that it was impossible for anyone to pass through the bomb bay.

This was the situation that existed in 42-31025 on 6 March 44. Lt. Albert A. Adams' plane had been hit hard over Berlin, losing an engine over the target. Returning alone, four of the crew members bailed out over Germany and T/Sgt Lloyd B. Keene, was killed when the plane was attacked by ME-109s.

After the bailout, conditions improved and the plane flew on home, without the four men who jumped.

At the interrogation, the 423rd squadron history quotes: "Our intercom was out and four of the men were so scared they bailed out without getting an order."

Several months ago, Max Palenica was visiting John Hedberg, and for the first time saw this quotation in First Over Germany. After that he wrote the author in high dudgeon to protest and to report what actually happened that day behind the bomb bay. Here is Max's story:

"While we were warming up before takeoff, we were having a problem with one engine, but we took off anyway. Later we got hit by flak in the target area, and with a windmilling prop we started to lose altitude. Lt. Adams gave the bail out order twice, but Lt. Mathis (Joseph B. Mathis III, KIA 22 Oct 44) twice said

'No.'

"At this time, a shell burst in the radio room where I was, and I was wounded in the face, leg, hand and back. I staggered into the waist. The rear door was pushed out and one man was bailing out, the other waist gunner was getting ready to bail out. I looked at him and he was hurt across the head and had blood all over his face. He, too, jumped.

"Just before I was going to jump something hit me in the leg. I looked up and there I saw the tail gunner, John Hedberg, stuck in the tail. I got him out and saw that he was badly hit in the hand. I immediately put a tourniquet around his wrist to stop the bleeding. Two fingers were gone and he was in a daze. I asked him if he could pull his rip cord and he nodded that he could. I put his legs out the door and kicked him out.

"I feel that I probably saved his life. I followed him out the door."

Palenica completed his letter by asking if this sounded like panic in the rear of the plane?

Hedberg was treated in several German hospitals and then was repatriated on the S.S. Gripsholm.

In further explanation, at the time First Over Germany was being researched and written, neither Hedberg nor Palenica had been located.

THURLEIGH SCHOOL AND THE 306TH MEMORIAL — Judy Stanton's classes from the Thurlleigh school appear at the 306th Memorial periodically, assuring that another generation of people in the area are aware of the three-year presence of the 306th men in their midst. In the lower photo Mrs. Stanton and two of her girls place the flowers in front of the monument. Casey Jones was among the 1988 visitors at the school, carrying a message from his 306th comrades, and another 306th'er, who prefers anonymity, helps with special programs at the school.

Brend's Tale

travel orders and all the records, etc., I managed to put someone else in charge and jumped off the train when it stopped in Norwich. I had my own travel orders which said I was to report at noon the following day. I visited my Mom at work, then went to my Grandmother's house where we lived. The next day they drove me to Ft. Devins. After several days I got a 72-day furlough. After I was discharged I waited for eight months for my wife to arrive here. The SS Washington brought her to New York City with thousands of other war brides.

As for me, I'm still in combat, still fighting the memories and thoughts of POW life, of what I've been through and of what my comrades suffered. I am still fighting for my rights from the VA.
